

Our Product Offering

Working Free supports the Senior Executive considering or embarking on a new career as an independent professional.

We work with Individuals directly and with Organisations as part of restructuring, redundancy, outplacement, career development or other mid-career transitioning arrangements and where independent working at senior levels is seen as an attractive way forward. We also work with established Independents in a refresher/ CPD capacity.

Our core driving beliefis that the UK's working population of about – now - 33m is heading towards parity between purely FTEs (Full Time Employed) and the rest who we describe as Self Drive Workers. Whatever anyone thinks – or calculates different figures - it is difficult to ignore this major structural change.

“Better comes Next” is our collaborative and inclusive Management Mission
